Welcome to "Love Must Be Blind"

A good marriage is a grand challenge. Statistics reveal the story of an eroding culture which has lost perspective on God's gift of unconditional unity.

Kim and I were both unbelievers when we were married while still in high-school. We were completely unaware of God's plan for marital unity and well on our way to becoming a tragic marital statistic. But in his grace, God placed us into an environment which cultivated unity, sparked intimacy, and forged a God honoring partnership. It was not until some years later, after we both became followers of Christ, that we realized exactly how God had used my visual impairment to cause us to live according to his incredible plan.

Join us for a refreshing marital retreat experience as Kim and I offer encouragement from God's Word illustrated by stories of our own faith walk. These light-hearted sessions address the heavy topic of unconditional marital unity done God's way as Kim and I reveal our journey in learning that "Love Must be Blind."

By His Grace

“ Did he not make them one,
with a portion of the Spirit in their union? ”
Malachi 2:15
